2017 16th Annual Ashtabula County APL Boo-Wow Walk

Dear Potential Sponsor,

On October 21st 2017 the Maple Ridge Golf Course in Austinburg Ohio, will be hosting the 16th Annual Boo-Wow Walk. This event serves as one of the ACAPL biggest fundraisers of the year! The Ashtabula County APL produces this Halloween themed event for the benefit of all the poor, unfortunate, homeless, puppies, dogs, cats and kittens at our shelter. Amid an atmosphere of pumpkins, straw, hay, ghosts and goblins, you will experience hundreds of our area's pets parading about in their scariest Halloween attire across the beautifully landscaped Maple Ridge Golf Course.

The Ashtabula County APL is committed to making this year's event a huge success, and without your support this would not be possible.

We are currently accepting sponsors, donations, and gift certificates to assist us in making this a wonderful event for our community and pet lovers alike to participate in.

As we have mentioned earlier, our event in the past has had a very large attendance and gracious support from our community. As a potential sponsor, you will benefit from the publicity this event garnishes. Most of our participants and donors eagerly support and patronize those who support the Ashtabula County APL. Your generous support would undoubtedly be a big hit with them.

To provide you with an idea of our organization and our mission, we encourage you to visit our website at www.acapl.org. For more information, email boardofdirectors@acapl.org.

Sincerely,

2017 Boo-Wow Walk Committee Member

The Ashtabula County Animal Protective League is a 501 (c) (3) membership based organization committed to providing temporary housing for the homeless dogs and cats of Ashtabula County, reducing pet overpopulation, and finding safe homes for adoptable dog and cats.
